Re: MUR 6561

To Whom It May Concern,

I have received the following additional information regarding MUR 6562 and present it as follows.

A. Failure to Report Correct District Number

Jessica Puente Bradshaw is a declared Republican candidate for U.S. Congress in the 34th District of Texas, according to the Texas Secretary of State and Republican Party of Texas websites. However, as of May 11, 2012, Ms. Puente-Bradshaw has filed both original and amended Statements of Candidacy and April Quarterly Reports with the Federal Elections Commission under Texas Congressional District 27. (See Attached). This misreporting results in the public being unable to locate campaign finance information on Ms. Puente-Bradshaw on fec.gov. I believe Ms. Puente-Bradshaw should clarify in which district she is a candidate.

B. Possible Use of a Fictitious Name

Ms. Puente Bradshaw filed a Statement of Candidacy, on April 18, 2012, and amended Statements of Candidacy on April 20, 2012 and April 24, 2012. Ms. Puente-Bradshaw filed a Statement of Organization on April 18, 2012 and April 24, 2012. On each of these filings she declared her name to be "Jessica Puente Bradshaw."

According to public records, Jessica Puente Bradshaw's legal name appears to be Jessica Robinson. Ms. Robinson has been registered to vote in Cameron County, Texas since January 1, 2012 at [redacted], Brownsville, TX 78520. In fact, Ms. Puente-Bradshaw signed her own petition for candidacy using her legal name "Jessica Robinson," presumably because that is the legal name in which she is registered to vote. (See Attachment). Jessica Robinson is also registered to vote in Travis County, Texas with Voter ID number [redacted], under the same address, Austin, TX 78732, and date of birth [redacted] that she used when filing her Federal Elections Commission Statement of Candidacy on April, 20, 2012. Jessica Robinson also maintains a Texas Driver's License (number) and a Texas Real Estate License (number 590355), both under the name Jessica Robinson and both at the same Austin address she used when filing FEC Forms 1 and 2 under the possibly fictitious name "Jessica Puente Bradshaw."

2 U.S.C. § 433(b)(5) requires that a Statement of Organization of a campaign committee must disclose the name of the candidate. Other provisions of the United States Code make it unlawful to provide false, fictitious or misleading statement on official forms. See 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(2) and (3).

I believe this possible use of a fictitious name may be a violation of federal campaign laws and regulations and at a minimum is confusing and misleading to the public.

C. Designation of "Friends of Liberty for Jessica" as both Primary Campaign Committee and NOT Primary Campaign Committee.

Ms. Puente-Bradshaw's second amended Statement of Candidacy, dated May 7, 2012, lists the committee named "Friends of Liberty for Jessica," located at 1219 Castleman Dr, Cedar Hill, TX 75104, to be BOTH her primary campaign committee (see section 7) and NOT her primary campaign committee (see section 8). I believe this logical contradiction to be confusing, misleading to the public and possibly a violation of campaign finance laws or regulations.

I urge to take give these matters your sincere attention.

Very truly yours,

OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

June 1, 2012

Re: MUR 6561

Dear Ms. Collins,

Thank you for taking the time to talk with Mr. Doan on my behalf on June 1, 2010. Mr. Doan has volunteered to help with my campaign for Congressional District 34 in Texas.

As to the matter outlined in paragraph A, Failure to Report Correct District Number:

In my last campaign in 2010 for Congressional District 27, my husband, Jonathan Bradshaw acted as my treasurer and filed with the FEC. At the beginning of this year, because of his heavy work schedule I asked for a volunteer to take over his role for filing with the FEC. Mr. Doan volunteered in late March to help with the FEC filing and began to collect the information needed to administer the database. Because of the transition in managing the database the change to the Congressional District was inadvertently missed, Mr. Doan will work with the FEC staff to make the correction as soon as possible.

As to the matter outlined in paragraph B, Possible Use of a Fictitious Name:

My legal name after birth was Jessica Maria Puente. My mother and I immigrated to the United States from Mexico and I became naturalized. My mother married and through an adoption by a Mr. Robinson, my name was legally changed to Jessica Robinson Puente. On my first drivers license there was limited room to spell out my full name so it was abbreviated to Jessica Robinson P., I objected, but nothing could be done at the time. Subsequent relocations out of state for college and career changed the name on my license by dropping the "P". Being married to Jonathan Bradshaw, people naturally refer to me as Mrs. Puente Bradshaw even though my license states differently. I had made several attempts to correct and "standardize" my name in the past and I believe it has now been accomplished. I have never made any attempt to misrepresent myself in any endeavor.

When I moved back to Brownsville, TX, I registered to vote in Cameron County while living at [redacted]. I never intended, nor was there ever any intention to vote in two counties. The state voting records will verify that. A letter has been sent to Travis County to assure purging of the registration.

As to the matter outlined in paragraph C, Designation of "Friends of Liberty for Jessica" as both Primary Campaign Committee and NOT Primary Campaign Committee:

As stated in paragraph A, in the transition from Jonathan Bradshaw to Gary Doan, there was confusion in using the FEC database. Mr. Doan will be working to make corrections to the FEC filing database as soon as possible.

Ms. Collins, thank you for resolving this complaint. I endeavor to be above board and compliant in pursuing the Republican nomination for the Texas Congressional District 34.

Regards,

Jessica Puente Bradshaw
